While the Court imposes special conditions, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3603(10), the probation officer shall perform any other duty that the Court may designate. The Court directs the probation officer to administer, monitor, and use all suitable methods consistent with the conditions specified by the Court and 18 U.S.C. § 3603 to aid persons on probation/supervised release. DEFENDANT: Josten L Denwood CASE NUMBER: 4:21-cr-40052-JPG-7

The defendant shall pay for the costs associated with services rendered, based on a Court approved sliding fee scale and the defendant's ability to pay. The defendant's financial obligation shall never exceed the total cost of services rendered. The Court directs the probation officer to approve the treatment provider and, in consultation with a licensed practitioner, the frequency and duration of counseling sessions, and duration of treatment, as well as monitor the defendant's participation, and assist in the collection of the defendant's copayment.

The defendant shall not knowingly visit or remain at places where controlled substances are illegally sold, used, distributed, or administered.

While any financial penalties are outstanding, the defendant shall provide the probation officer and the Financial Litigation Unit of the United States Attorney's Office any requested financial information. The defendant is advised that the probation office may share financial information with the Financial Litigation Unit.

While any financial penalties are outstanding, the defendant shall apply some or all monies received, to be determined by the Court, from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, judgments, and/or any other anticipated or unexpected financial gains to any outstanding court-ordered financial obligation. The defendant shall notify the probation officer within 72 hours of the receipt of any indicated monies.

The defendant shall pay any financial penalties imposed which are due and payable immediately. If the defendant is unable to pay them immediately, any amount remaining unpaid when supervised release commences will become a condition of supervised release and be paid in accordance with the Schedule of Payments sheet of the judgment based on the defendant's ability to pay.

The defendant shall work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.

The defendant's person, residence, real property, place of business, vehicle, and any other property under the defendant's control is subject to a search, conducted by any United States Probation Officer and other such law enforcement personnel as the probation officer may deem advisable and at the direction of the United States Probation Officer, at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release, without a warrant. Failure to submit to such a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall inform any other residents that the premises and other property under the defendant's control may be subject to a search pursuant to this condition.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. Probation Officer has read and explained the conditions ordered by the Court and has provided me with a complete copy of this Judgment. Further information regarding the conditions imposed by the Court can be obtained from the probation officer upon request.
